Dear Costco Member,

Costco records indicate that you, or one of your add-on members, have purchased a clothing storage unit (dresser, chest, chesser, door chest, chiffarobe, etc.) from Springhill Designs between November 2019 and December 2023.

The plastic tip restraint kit manufactured by New Age Industries (included in some clothing storage units, i.e. dressers, chests, chesser, door chest, chiffarobe, etc.) has been recalled. The unit you purchased may have included a plastic zip tie in the recalled tip restraint kit that can become brittle or break. This is NOT a recall of the furniture itself - ONLY the tip restraint kit.

*Recalled New Age tip restraint kit
(CONTENTS) - 1 plastic zip-tie, 2 brackets, and 2 screws.*

You should immediately check if the clothing storage unit(s) you purchased have a date of manufacture sticker or stamp of November 2019 to December 2023 (the sticker may be located on the back or inside the top drawer of your unit).

If your unit was manufactured between November 2019 and December 2023, and the tip kit is made of plastic, please contact Alliance4Safety for a free replacement tip kit:
