We do not collect education information.

Our Use of Personal Information

We use the personal information we collect for purposes described below or otherwise disclosed to you.

- Identification. To identify you and confirm your membership status when you visit one of our locations, or otherwise interact with the Services. For example, you may be asked to show or scan your membership card or digital membership, including your photograph, when entering or while visiting a location, to complete a transaction, or when exiting a location.
- Product and service delivery. To provide our products and services, including: securing, troubleshooting, improving, and personalizing products and services, and processing, fulfilling, shipping, and delivering your orders.
- Business operations. To operate our business, such as: creating, maintaining, and renewing your membership, billing, accounting, improving our internal operations, securing our networks and systems, detecting fraudulent, illegal, or unauthorized activity, and monitoring trends, usage and activities in connection with our Services and warehouses.

- Product improvement, development and research. To improve our products, develop new products or features, and conduct research.
- Personalization. To understand you and your preferences, to enhance your experience and enjoyment using our products and services and personalize your online experience and the advertisements you see when you use the Services or other platforms.
- Customer support. To send you information and notices about your membership account such as updates, order confirmations, delivery and pick-up notices, security alerts, and support and administrative messages.
- Marketing and advertising. To create marketing materials; to communicate with you about Costco and other companies' products and services, offers, promotions, rewards, contests, upcoming events, and other information about our products and services and those of other selected companies; and to display advertising to you.
- Legal, security and safety reasons. For legal, security and safety reasons, such as to protect our rights and the rights of our customers and members, protect the security of our systems, networks and facilities, enforce our policies, communicate product recalls or safety notices, or address legal and regulatory compliance obligations.
- For any other purpose described to you at the time information is collected.

We combine information we collect from different sources to achieve these purposes and to give you a more seamless, consistent, and personalized experience.

Our Disclosure of Personal Information

State law also requires us to provide you with information regarding the parties to whom we “sell” or “share” your information, and the parties to whom we disclose your information for a business purpose. A business “sells” personal information when it discloses personal information to a third party for monetary or other benefit. A business “shares” personal information when it discloses personal information to a third party in order to engage in cross-context targeted advertising. A company may be considered a third party either because the purpose for its receipt of personal information is not for a business purpose under applicable law, or because its contract does not restrict it from using personal information for other purposes.

We sell or share your information as follows:

- Identifiers: to advertising and marketing partners and analytics providers
- Commercial Information: to advertising and marketing partners and analytics providers
- Internet or Electronic Network Activity Information: to advertising and marketing partners

Any category of personal information listed above also may be disclosed for a business purpose to service providers and contractors, which are companies or individuals that we engage to conduct activities on our behalf. Service providers and contractors are restricted from using personal information for any purpose not related to our engagement.

Costco does not sell or share sensitive personal information with third parties.
